

ONHA Job Posting

Position: Chief Executive Officer, Oregon Nonprofit Hospice Alliance

The Oregon Nonprofit Hospice Alliance (ONHA), with 3 affiliated community based nonprofit hospices serving communities between the Washington and California borders, is seeking a part-time CEO upon upcoming retirement of the current CEO.

Founded in 2018, ONHA is the parent organization for its affiliates working to advance high quality, innovative end of life care services and inspire community engagement. Modeled after other successful nonprofit hospice alliance in the U.S., ONHA works with its affiliates to invest more of every dollar in clinical care.

If you are a collaborative, creative, seasoned hospice leader with excellent communication and people skills who enjoys the challenges of building consensus and coalitions, working with a board of directors, strategic planning, project management, and improving business performance, this role will both leverage your talents and provide an opportunity to advance the nonprofit Hospice difference in Oregon. In this position, you will work from home utilizing telecommunications technology and travel periodically to meet with ONHA leaders and represent ONHA within the health care community. This position offers a competitive salary and benefits package, as well as a flexible work schedule.

To apply for this position please send a cover letter explaining your interest and a comprehensive resume to Andy Kyler, ONHA CEO at andy.kyler@onhanetwork.org.
