

Agency Name

Samaritan Health Services

Position Title

Palliative Care Physician or APC

City where Position is Located

Albany, OR

Position Description

Samaritan Health Services has an opportunity for a Palliative Care Clinician (Physician or Advanced Practice Clinician)

Samaritan Health Services, a non-profit integrated health care delivery system in Oregon, is seeking a full time Palliative Care Physician or NP/PA to join our team.

Our award-winning health system provides exceptional primary care and a range of specialty services throughout the mid-Willamette Valley and Central Oregon coast. The network serves approximately 300,000 residents in Linn, Benton, Lincoln and portions of Polk and Marion counties. Our skilled providers have a passion for building healthier communities through world-class, compassionate health care.

Job Specifics

- Inpatient palliative care position with IDT, including RN, LCSW, and hospital chaplains.
- Provide care to new and follow-up patients, in addition to supporting hospitalist team(s) with triaging palliative care and hospice needs.
- No traditional call; on-call hours are M-F daytime hours only.
- Participate in the teaching of medical students, residents, and other learners working with the palliative care service.

Job Requirements

- Education: Board Certified/Board Eligible with fellowship (physician) or training (NP/PA) in palliative care and/or hospice.
- Experience: Both experienced and new graduates are encouraged to apply.
- Licensure/Certification: Current Oregon license (or eligible)
- Other: CPR, BCLS, PALS required

We offer an attractive salary plus incentives, relocation assistance, paid malpractice, CME allowance, Electronic Medical Record (EPIC) and a competitive benefit package.

Location details

Physicians and their families will appreciate the abundant outdoor recreation opportunities available in the Willamette Valley, as well as proximity to the pristine Oregon Coast, the Cascade Mountains for snow sports, and Portland, Oregon's largest city – all within two hours! Experience the unmatched quality of life that our area has to offer.

Where Applications can be Delivered

To apply, visit samhealth.org/DocJobs or to find out more contact Veronica McShane, vmcshane@samhealth.org.