End of Life Education Series kicks off with author Sunita Puri, MD

Bend, OR

The Peaceful Presence Project announces that author and physician Sunita Puri, MD will be the keynote speaker for the first in a series of virtual end-of-life education events.

On February 17th, Puri will present “The Promise of Palliative Care”, discussing what drew her to this field of medicine and the inspiration for her book, “That Good Night: Love and Medicine in the Eleventh Hour.” Along with the co-directors of the Peaceful Presence Project, Puri will also discuss how the philosophy of palliative medicine has the promise to shift how we experience and treat serious illness, as well as how culture and religion play a role in patient-centered palliative care.

This is a ticketed, virtual event. $10 registration can be made at:
